

Rousseau was a French artist and is famous for painting jungle wildlife scenes. He lived from 1844-1910 and is known as a post-impressionist painter. It is your task today to create your own jungle scene.

On the following pages you will find tutorials on how to draw different jungle animals and plants that you could include in your picture.

You can use any medium you want to create your picture; paint, chalk, felt tips, colouring pencils etc... If you do not have any of these at home, then you can create a black and white sketch using your pencil.
