

Aqiqah

Match the part of the Aqiqah ceremony with the explanation about why it is done.

Shaving the baby's head.

To give food to the poor.

Having an Aqiqah ceremony.

The matching weight in silver is given to charity.

Buying meat from an Islamic Butcher.

To show that the baby belongs to God.

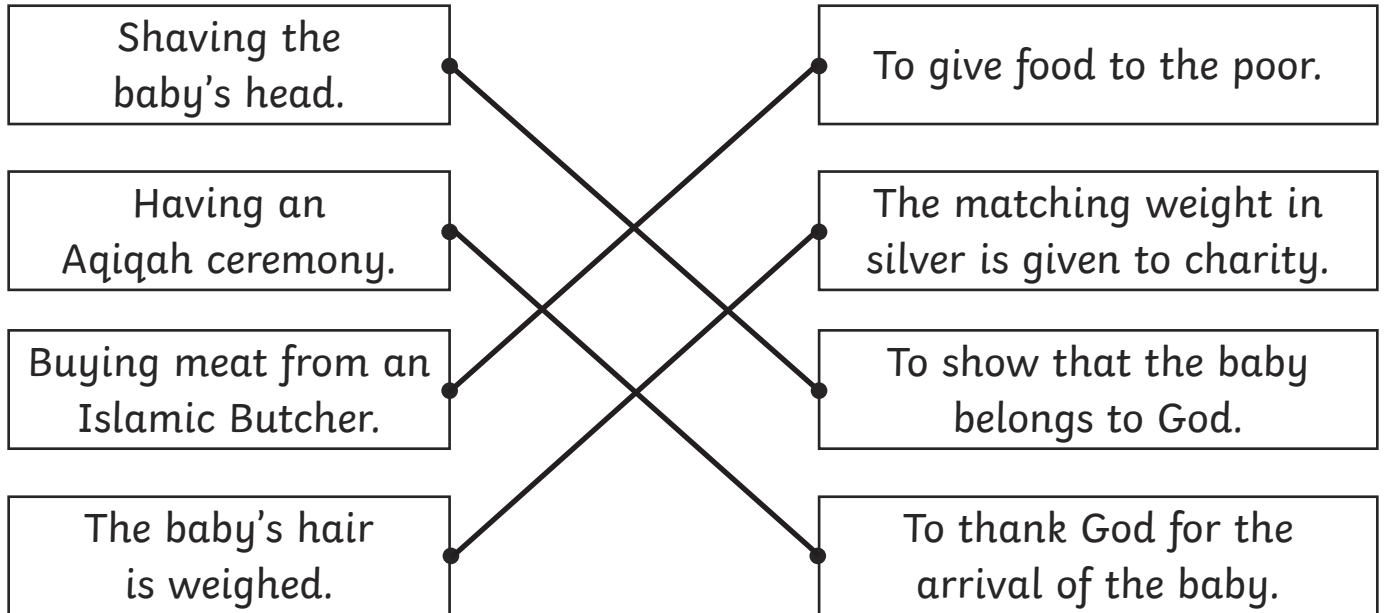

The baby's hair is weighed.

To thank God for the arrival of the baby.

An important part of Aqiqah is giving to charity, which means giving money or food to people who don't have much. Can you think of ways you could help people who need it?

Aqiqah - Answers

Match the part of the Aqiqah ceremony with the explanation about why it is done.

An important part of Aqiqah is giving to charity, which means giving money or food to people who don't have much. Can you think of ways you could help people who need it?

Answers should be the children's own, appropriate to the theme of helping and/or giving to charity.