GOOD LUCK YEAR 6-

The year 6's will be leaving us to continue their journey onto their secondary schools at the end of today. They have worked so hard this year and have really enjoyed a fun packed final week and a half of the school term. They have done two brilliant performances of 'Shakespeare on Trial', been canoeing, enjoyed their Summer Event run by the PTA, devoured sausages and burgers at their Leavers BBQ and presented their leavers speeches so confidently at the church yesterday. We wish them all the best of luck as they leave us today and know that they will continue to work hard as they begin year 7 in September. Good Luck! You will all be missed!

SPOTTED @ SPELLBROOK

The final spotted @ Spellbrook for the academic year relates to Diamond Class and Emerald class.

For Diamond class the fantastic performances of the leavers play 'Shakespeare on Trial,' you were all amazing.... Well done!

For Emerald class when Miss Hayward walked in to hear them all answering to the register with their pirate names for pirate day.... Ooh Argh!!!
